One to Break Run of Hard Luck.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

FOR anybody who has a scheme for breaking a hoodoo there is some easy money up at the Polo Grounds. Wren's scheme up nicely, mail it to Fred Knowles, secretary of the Giants, and if it turns the trick you are likely to come into good fortune. McGraw has tried everything that he knows and still the former world's champion has to take a kick in the shins.

The fact that St. Louis has won two games of the season series is pretty bad, but it amounts to very little when we remember that yesterday's defeat marked the fifth consecutive beating at the hands of these daisied Cardinals. Now, there is something wrong when that gang can win five straight games. They certainly have not got the better team. Everybody knows that. So, what is it?

On the open end St. Louis made nine hits and won, notwithstanding the fact that the Giants made eighteen. Yesterday the Cardinals made seven hits and so did the Giants. Each of them made two errors. On the face of the returns it ought to have been an even break, but somehow doesn't work that way. Two chances got a few of their hits bunched and the Giants didn't. To make it worse, every hobbie made by New York counted against us, while St. Louis's errors had no connection with the score whatever.

The real trouble is that the Giants are playing a hoodoo game. They can't explain it themselves. There is not a sorehead on the club, but they simply can't get their finger up when it counts. There is not a man on the club who is loyal to McGraw, and they fight at the drop of a hat on a bad decision, but the key to the old base running combination has been lost.

When a bad club like St. Louis can come up and make the Giants look like a lot of suckers there is a "nigger in the woodpile" somewhere. An occasional defeat by a weaker team can always be excused on the grounds of bad luck and unexpected incidents, but when they do it five times in succession, well—what are you going to do about it?

While that trimming was going on yesterday afternoon, the hoodoo occasioned to look the New York clubs over very carefully. This morning, an old still under the hood, a man still under the hood, Larry Doyle is new at second, and he hasn't the finish of a seasoned player, but Larry, having lost any games, on account of his hitting and base running, is a little stronger than Needham, but absolutely no criticism can be made on the work.

Pastime A. C. to Hold Monthly Meeting Sunday.

To-morrow afternoon the Pastime A. C. will hold its monthly members' games at the Pastime Oval, Ninetieth street and Avenue A, Borough of Manhattan. The events scheduled are 100 yards, 220-yard hurdle, 800-yard run, one-mile run, twelve-pound shot, all handicaps, and a 400-yard run, novice. Open to all registered amateurs is a mile run for three, who never won a prize at this particular distance. Games will commence at 2 P. M. sharp.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

St. Louis	12 10 1 1	Philadelphia	12 10 1 1
Chicago	12 10 1 1	Pittsburgh	12 10 1 1
Cincinnati	12 10 1 1	St. Paul	12 10 1 1
St. Louis	12 10 1 1	St. Paul	12 10 1 1

of Needham. He has had as well as any man in the game, and throwing a long hit, and then did not chase the ball. He couldn't save any way, but that didn't matter. It made him appear as if he was tired. In the last inning, Pease failed to run on an infield hit, and the next inning came pretty near missing the throw at first. On other plays several of the men failed to back up when a ball was thrown in from the field. These little things amounted to nothing so far as the result was concerned, but it only shows that the team is all tired out and weary. Their good playing has gone for naught, while their bad playing has counted against them every time, and they have become discouraged.

The season is young yet and the clubs are pretty closely bunched, and there is yet a chance to get together and get back the lead. Those fans who have started to knock and sneer are a lot of quitters. If you can't beat try to take it easy, and don't knock. McGraw is likely to win this afternoon, and if he does it will set things going. Let's all cheer up!

Merkle is certainly a lucky phish hitter. In the past two days he has come up twice, and both times he has reached first. Roy Thomas, of the Phillies, has gone back to his old love. He landed the Pittsburgh pitcher yesterday, and will play regularly in the outfield.
